

THE DAILY BULLETIN

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 27, 1924.

The Utah bill will be considered in the Senate this week.

The iron works of Pittsburgh are preparing for a general strike to begin the first of June.

The Cincinnati News-Journal's debts amount to $45,000. The office will be sold at auction next week.

The average acreage of wheat in Kentucky is greater by ten per cent than it was last year, and everywhere it is looking in fine condition.

The Holiday House, at Flemingsburg, under the management of Mr. H. M. Stitt, is one of the best stopping places in the State. Travelers should, by all means, go there if they wish to be generously taken care of.

Mr. H. HAMMOND, of Georgia, will head the committee to investigate W. H. Egan, Ex-Commissioner Green B. Raum is also to be investigated. It has long been a scandal that ex-members have grossly abused their privileges of access to the floor.

MARTIN, Boyd, Carter and Lewis Counties have been instructed for Moore. The delegation from Rockcastle County were instructed to vote first for Scott and second for Riddle. The delegates from Bourbon are understood to be divided between Moore and Scott. The Rowan delegates are instructed to vote for Kendall first and second for Moore. Knox County is for Scott. Greenup County will probably be divided between Moore and Riddle. Riddle is said to have carried Elliott and Menifee Counties in addition to Montgomery, Clark, Madison, Nicholas, Robertson, Bath and Fleming.

Sales of Land.

The following transfers of real estate have been recorded at the office of the County Clerk, since our last report:

Louis Reinert and others, to the Mayville and Big Sandy R. R. Company, right of way, Consideration, $20.

Augusta Sullivan and wife, to same, right of way, Consideration, $65.

W. M. Hall and wife, to George W. Watlingford, two lots in Chester, Consideration, $25.

Thomas Glasscock Jr. and wife, to John M. Glasscock, quit claim to 1/2 acre of land on section 18, $50.

Paul D. Browning to Alex. Watson, share interest in 30 acres of land on Shannon creek, Consideration, $25.

John L. Brodhead and others to Joseph Huber, 26 acres of land and 25 poles of land on Lawrence creek, Consideration, $1,075.

The following paragraph from the New York Journal of Commerce contains some good advice to stock gamblers and dealers in futures: "It is time for those who have been trying to get their living by their wits to forsake this precarious calling and engage in some honest, remunerative employment. We have often directed attention to the fact that so large a number throughout the country are employed in operations which have not in them a single element of legitimate business, and are little, if any, better than mere gambling ventures, betting on future prices. Those who are once inoculated with the fever find it hard to attend to anything else until it has run its course and left them stranded and helpless."

Why We Knew It Was Impossible.

A Cincinnati story in clothing was standing on the depot platform at Hamilton, same state, a few mornings ago when the north-bound train came in. A passenger whom he knew, but his head out of a coach window, and was asked the news.

"Fire in the city last night," he replied.

"Vinas did so? Was vinas burned?"

"Why, the fire was in your store."

"No."

"So I heard 'em saying, and also that it was set on fire."

"My friend," he remarked the clothier, as he brushed the ashes off his cigar, "it dot was impossible. My stock valued at $20,000 and my insurance value only $7,000. Dot fire must have been a mile away."

COUNTY POINTS.

TWO LACK.
No tobacco planted yet.
Born, to the wife of Charles Jones, a fine boy.
Harvest will be soon in, it promises to be a good yield.
Our Methodist brethren have organized a Sunday school at our school house.
Gabe Case and L. W. Smith, R. A. Woodward have begun in course of construction.
We expect to have the pleasure of recording a marriage shortly soon. So be it.

The Ice Question.
Where do you buy your ice? The Mayville Artificial Ice Company is selling the best ice in the world at less price than is usually asked for inferior ice. So enlightened person making any pretension to cleanliness will use any other but the manufactured ice. It is clean, clear and tasteless, free from all impurities, and is made from distilled water. Send your orders to the office on Wall street, or give them to the driver of the delivery wagon. may12/24

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—In the House Mr. ROBERTS (Cal.) offered a resolution authorizing the Military Committee to investigate the plan management and working of the national houses of disabled veterans. Adopted.

Mr. HANDEL (Tenn.) reported back the Agricultural Appropriation Bill, recommending the House to non-concur in the Senate amendments. Adopted.

By Mr. HERBERT (Ala.) reducing the internal taxation by abolishing license taxes on dealers in tobacco.
By Mr. HEWITT (N. Y.), amending the act authorizing the formation of a National Bank. The bill forbids the president, cashier, teller, or other officers of the bank procuring any loan from the bank, and in case any loan should accrue to the bank from such loan made in violation of this act, the officer guilty shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement, to be punished, on conviction thereof, with imprisonment not less than one year nor more than five, and to pay a fine equal to the amount advanced.

About seventy-five bills were introduced. On motion of Mr. STEVENS (Ind.), the Senate substitute for House bill providing for the muster and pay of certain officers and men, volunteer forces, was adopted. The bill gives the rank and pay from the date of the commission and service without regard to the date of mustering.

Under the rules, this is District Columbia day, but Mr. TURNER (Ga.) called up the Wallace McKimley election case, as a question of privilege, addressing the House in support of the majority report giving Wallace the seat.

In Senate Mr. INGALLS reported favorably from the Committee on Judiciary, with amendment, the joint resolution proposing to amend the Constitution changing the terms of the office of President and Vice-President.

Mr. HART moved to concur in the House amendments to the bill extending the duration of the Court in the Alabama claims. Mr. BAYARD and Mr. GARLAND opposing the motion. It was finally agreed to by 219 to 210.

Mr. THUMB reported favorably, with amendment, a bill forbidding unexcused family grants to the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad.

MIXING THINGS.

Eloping Wife, Desolate Husband and a Consoling Young Lady.

LEXINGTON, Ga., May 27.—Oglethorpe County has been treated to a succession of sensations of a remarkable character. Miss Minnie Williamson, who has been admired by many, was one morning early in the week missing from her home. Simultaneously the disappearance of Mr. J. W. Culverson led to the disclosure that the couple had eloped, leaving the old folks to come to terms as best they could.

This was followed by the disappearance of the wife of Mr. J. K. Polkton, who left under the guardianship of John Lankford for an extended tour of Texas. Lankford for some time acted the part of friend to the family, and made himself especially pleasing to the wife. She left a note behind her begging her husband to forgive her, and seek a more congenial mate. The husband followed with a hot gun, and almost overtook the flying couple. When he attempted to fire the gun failed to serve him, and he retired from the chase, content to let the couple go.

The most remarkable part of the story remains to be told. Lankford had a beautiful sister, who depended upon her brother for support. She felt deeply the disgrace which her brother had brought upon her, and being a woman of tender sympathies, called upon the deserted husband to console him in his loss. The visit was somewhat protracted, and under the smiles of the fair visitor Mr. Polkton began to feel that he could start life anew. Miss Lankford also felt that she had met her man. When they parted at the gate it was with an indelible feeling that they would know more of each other hereafter. The husband, now transformed into a lover, called upon the deserted sister and she declared that she wanted to atone for her brother's wrong by filling the place of the erring Mrs. Polkton. On Friday he drove around with a horse and buggy, and calling to the nearest railroad station they bought tickets for Texas, where it is likely they will meet the guilty couple who preceded them.

BAD COMMUNITY.

A Boy Murderer Who Promises to Excel the Notorious Portney Boy.
PORTLAND, Ore., May 27.—Jas. Russell, the sixteen-year-old murderer who, a few days ago, in a rage, stabbed to death his cousin, a boy aged fifteen, has had his trial at Roseburg, Oregon, on a charge of murder in the first degree. Owing to his youth the prisoner was allowed to plead guilty to manslaughter, and Saturday was sentenced to imprisonment for seven years. He manifested no emotion whatever when sentenced. He is the youngest criminal in the State penitentiary, and seems perfectly hardened.

Several months ago the town of Weston, Oregon, was almost totally destroyed by fire. Loss by the fire reached $250,000. It originated in a hotel kept by Isaac Sylvester under very mysterious circumstances. Investigation traced the matter up and yesterday Sylvester was arrested charged with setting the town on fire. James H. Hines, an enterprising person implicated here, and denied him the country. The evidence against Sylvester seemed to be conclusive. Public sentiment and indignation are running very high.

The Presbyterians.
SARATOGA, May 27.—At the Presbyterian General Assembly, morning session, a resolution was adopted for continuing correspondence with the Southern Assembly by letter. A fraternal letter from the Methodist General Conference was read. A response by the Assembly was also read. The recommendation of the Committee on Reduced Representation was adopted. The news item on the issue of the religion of the Church, and the neurological report was read. The Assembly next year meets at Cincinnati.

Returned to Work.
FALL RIVER, May 27.—The spinners at the Union Mills returned to work at reduced wages. It is raining. Some of the Border City Mills strikers also returned. The mill is running full and the others nearly full. At Wampumpan the three and the Slide Mills strikers agreed to return if taken back in a body.

PENN BANK CLOSED.

Said to be Closed by the Illness of Its President.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 27.—The Penn Bank closed its doors again at 13 o'clock to-day and posted the following notice on the door: "Mr. Riddle, the President and chief executive officer of the bank having become suddenly and seriously ill and unable to communicate with the directors, it is deemed proper to close the bank under existing circumstances until he sufficiently recovers to be present at the management of its affairs. By order of the Board."

Officers are placed in charge, who refuse to permit audience with any of the Board. There is great excitement.

President Riddle, of the Penn Bank, has been sick for some time. He got out of a sick bed to try to save the bank from the ruin. He was seized with a sudden pain in the bowels at 10 o'clock this morning and to allow him took of morphine an over dose. Doctors are now using the stomach-pump. When told how serious his condition was, Mr. Riddle said: "I don't mind dying, but hope I will be spared long enough to see my bank, the pride of my life, set on its feet again."

GONE TO JUDGMENT.

The Missing Teller of the West Side Bank Found Drowned.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 27.—A man found drowned in the river here has been identified as Charles H. Hinckley, defaulting teller of the West Side Bank, New York. The register at the Delaware House does not contain his name. Last night a lady called at the Delaware and inquired for Hinckley. Not finding him, she left the city. Her destination was unknown.

New York, Wall Street.—The stock market shows no improvement in the tone this morning. During the first half an hour a heavy pressure to sell all the leaders, and with every sale prices went steadily lower. The first call witnessed a decline which ranged from 1/4 to 3/8. After the first board the bull clique came to the support, and the bid bidding went up. There was a partial recovery and in some cases prices advanced to the best figures.
